Office Depot Becomes Installation Partner for Google and Nest Smart Devices

December 12, 2018

Tech Experts are Available to Install Everything from Cameras to Smart Thermostats to Building Integrated Secure Smart Homes and Offices

BOCA RATON, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 12, 2018-- Office Depot, Inc. (NASDAQ:ODP), a leading omnichannel provider of business services and supplies, products and technology solutions, is now a certified installation partner for Google and Nest smart home devices. This means that customers can not only buy their Google Home Minis and Nest cameras, thermostats and more from Office Depot, they can also have them installed and connected to their other smart home devices as well. As a Nest Pro Partner, Office Depot's Workonomy™ Tech Services can install a single device or integrate several smart devices, creating a secure integrated smart home or office.

"This is a collaboration we're excited to be a part of and see major future benefit as we continue expanding our service offerings," said Janet Schijns, chief services and solutions officer for Office Depot, Inc. "As a Nest Pro Partner, we are offering smart home consultation and installation services across our approximately 1,400 retail locations and e-commerce site, bringing the benefits of these smart devices to our business customers in an efficient, safe and secure way. We want to free up more of our customers' time so they can focus on their lives and their business, not setting up secure networks and reading installation manuals."

Office Depot's CompuCom subsidiary will leverage its technicians to offer installation services of Nest and Google smart devices. Google provides these tech experts with exclusive training, tools and live VIP support, ensuring that every Office Depot customer gets their smart home or office service from the best trained professionals.

Office Depot's new smart home and office installation services start at $99, however, during the month of December only, the company is offering all customers $20 off in-home or in-office installations. To schedule your free one hour on-site consultation or learn more about Office Depot's Workonomy™ Tech Services, visit any one of our approximately 1,400 locations, call 1.888.315.5073 or click here.
