OFFICEMAX UPDATES THIRD QUARTER 2010 GUIDANCE

OFFICEMAX TO PRESENT TODAY AT GOLDMAN SACHS ANNUAL GLOBAL RETAILING CONFERENCE

NAPERVILLE, Ill., September 14, 2010 – OfficeMax® Incorporated (NYSE: OMX) today announced that, as part of its presentation today at the Goldman Sachs Global Retailing Conference, it plans to update its outlook for the third quarter of 2010.

Sam Duncan, Chairman and CEO of OfficeMax, said, “As we finish the Back-to-School season, we are pleased with our execution to date in the quarter in an extremely tough environment. Similar to last year’s Back-to-School season, customers were budget conscious and retailers were very competitive and promotional. That said, our performance in this important season met our expectations.

Bruce Besanko, EVP, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Administrative Officer of OfficeMax, said, “We continue to face challenging global macroeconomic conditions including continued weak U.S. employment trends. To date in the third quarter, as expected, the company has experienced a year-over-year domestic retail same-store sales percentage decline which was favorable to the second quarter 2010 year-over-year domestic retail sales percentage decline of 2.1%.”

OfficeMax anticipates that for the third quarter, total company sales will be slightly lower than the prior year’s third quarter, including the favorable impact of foreign currency translation, which is in line with the company’s previous guidance. The company now anticipates that adjusted operating income margin rate will be slightly higher than the prior year’s third quarter due primarily to favorable settlements of sales/use tax issues in the third quarter of 2010. Excluding these settlements, adjusted operating income margin rate for the third quarter will be in line with the company’s previous guidance.

A live audio webcast of the presentation can be accessed today at 8:45a.m. Eastern Time via the Internet by visiting the OfficeMax website at <http://investor.officemax.com>. The webcast will be archived and available online until October 14, 2010 and will be posted on the “Presentations” page located within the “Investors” section of the OfficeMax website.
