Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 30, 2015, Staples, Inc. (the "Company") and Office Depot, Inc. ("Office Depot") each received a request for additional information and documentary material, often referred to as a "second request," from the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC") in connection with the proposed acquisition of Office Depot by the Company. The second request was issued under the notification requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"). The effect of the second request is to extend the waiting period imposed by the HSR Act until 30 days after the Company and Office Depot have substantially complied with this request, unless that period is extended voluntarily by the parties or terminated sooner by the FTC. The Company and Office Depot intend to cooperate fully with this request. The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including antitrust regulatory approval and Office Depot stockholder approval, and is expected to close by the end of calendar year 2015.

IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

In connection with the proposed merger between the Company and Office Depot, the Company has filed with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 that includes a preliminary proxy statement of Office Depot that also constitutes a preliminary prospectus of the Company. The registration statement has not yet become effective. After the registration statement has been declared effective by the SEC, the definitive proxy statement/prospectus will be delivered to stockholders of Office Depot. The registration statement and the proxy statement/prospectus contain important information about the Company, Office Depot, the transaction and related matters. Investors and security holders are urged to read the registration statement and the proxy statement/prospectus (including all amendments and supplements thereto) carefully.

Investors and security holders may obtain free copies of the registration statement and the proxy statement/prospectus and other documents filed with the SEC by the Company and Office Depot through the web site maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov.

In addition, investors and security holders will be able to obtain free copies of the registration statement and the definitive proxy statement/prospectus (when available) from the Company by contacting the Company's Investor Relations Department at 800-468-7751 or from Office Depot by contacting Office Depot's Investor Relations Department at 561-438-7878.

The Company and Office Depot, and their respective directors and executive officers, may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the proposed merger between the Company and Office Depot. Information regarding the Company's directors and executive officers is contained in the Company's proxy statement dated April 11, 2014, which is filed with the SEC. Information regarding Office Depot's directors and executive officers is contained in Office Depot's preliminary proxy statement dated March 20, 2015, which is filed with the SEC. To the extent holdings of securities by such directors or executive officers have changed since the amounts printed in such proxy statements, such changes have been or will be reflected on Statements of Change in Ownership on Form 4 filed with the SEC.

SAFE HARBOR FOR FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements in this document regarding the proposed transaction between the Company and Office Depot, the expected timetable for completing the transaction, future financial and operating results, benefits and synergies of the transaction, future opportunities for the combined company and any other statements about the Company or Office Depot managements' future expectations, beliefs, goals, plans or prospects constitute forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any statements that are not statements of historical fact (including statements containing "believes," "anticipates," "plans," "expects," "may," "will," "would," "intends," "estimates" and similar expressions) should also be considered to be forward looking statements. There are a number of important factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those indicated by such forward looking statements, including: the ability to consummate the transaction; the
